

May 21st, 10:00 – 11:30 am “Understanding Autism Spectrum Disorder to Ensure Effective Service Delivery”

Speaker: Liz Farmer, MA

- Master's Degree in Psychology, Ball State University.
- Provision of behavioral services to adults and children with a variety of developmental disabilities and behavioral concerns including: Autism Spectrum Disorders, Down Syndrome, Cerebral Palsy, Traumatic Brain Injury, Anxiety, Depression, and Mood Disorders
- Work Experiences have included: Behavior Consultant at New Castle State Developmental Center, Director of Psychology North Willow Center (Indianapolis), Autism Consultant (Hancock-Madison-Shelby Educational Services), Behavior Consultant for Hopewell Center Group Homes, the Indiana Medicaid Waiver Program, and currently, Behavior Therapist for Anderson Community School Corporation.