

April 23rd, 10:00 am (approx.) Navigating Ethics

Speakers:

Martha McClurg MPH RD, LD

Martha McClurg has experience in academic, clinical, and retail dietetics, previously serving as public policy coordinator for both the Indiana Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the Iowa Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics. She is an avid baker, Purdue Extension master gardener, and aspires to be a beekeeper one day.

Eric Sader, JD, MSW, LSW, Esq.

Eric is a full-time lecturer at Indiana University's Kelley School of Business in the Department of Business Law & Ethics. His primary course Ethics & the 21st Century Business Leader was recently expanded in scope and credit to more deeply incorporate content specific to diversity, equity, and inclusion. Eric also serves as a Faculty Fellow to the Center for Innovative Teaching & Learning. Eric has provided adjunct services for IU's School of Social Work and School of Public & Environmental Affairs, plus Fort Hays State University. Eric has also served as a field instructor in social work across a variety of organizations he has been involved with including City of Bloomington, Spencer Pride, and Lawrence-Douglas County Housing Authority. Eric developed and taught continuing education content to healthcare practitioners for Johnson County Community College prior to his move to Indiana. In his spare time, Eric currently serves as a Commissioner to Monroe County Human Rights Commission.

Blair Henry, D. Bioethics

Blair is a Senior Ethicist with the Health Ethics Alliance and is currently working with the Ethics Centres at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Center, North York General Hospital and West Park Health Care Centre in Toronto.

Blair completed two post graduate Ethics fellowship through the Joint Centre for Bioethics at the University of Toronto, and he holds a Doctor of Bioethics degree from Loyola University in Chicago. He also has an Assistant Professor in the Division of Palliative Care in the Department of Family and Community Medicine at the University of Toronto.

Blair has a particular interest in the ethics of research relating to ethics at the end of life.