IAND
Indiana Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics
eat right. an affiliate of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

The Indiana Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (Indiana Academy or IAND) is a Non-Profit Association of more than 1300 diverse and inclusive dietetic professionals, including Registered Dietitian Nutritionists (RDN), Dietetic Technicians Registered (DTR) and Dietetic Students. IAND members represent all areas of nutrition services including those at hospitals, school food services, public health, long-term care facilities, education, research, private practice, pharmaceutical companies, and special needs.

Our Mission: To optimize Indiana residents' health through food and nutrition and support the RDN profession.

Our Vision: Individual wellbeing – healthy communities – visionary solutions through RDN expertise.

Our Principles:

- Evidence based practice - Commit to lifelong learning and promotion of best practices to solve food and nutrition related challenges in Indiana through education and research.
- Advocacy - Empower members to be Indiana's food and nutrition experts within the community and advocate for nutrition policy at the local, state, and national level.
- Integrity - Act ethically with accountability for commitment to excellence.
- Mentorship - Support both student and RDN members in professional development and leadership opportunities.
- Diversity - Support a diverse profession and respect differences in ability, age, creed, culture, ethnicity, gender/identity, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, size, and socioeconomic characteristics.

Since November 16, 1921, the Indiana Academy has held an annual meeting for all Dietitians, Dietetic Technicians, and Dietetic Students across Indiana to provide continuing education opportunities. As a non-profit the Indiana Academy looks to partner with organizations to secure funding. In the following pages you will find various opportunities for supporting the IAND's continued efforts to provide lifelong learning, promote best practices, and empower our members as Indiana's food and nutrition experts.

IAND's Sponsorship Chair can answer any questions you may have or further discuss contribution opportunities at iand\_sponsorships@eatrightin.org.

Thank you for your time and consideration in the request for contributions to IAND.
We look forward to the opportunity to partner with your organization.

The Indiana Academy is an affiliate of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and has been serving citizens of Indiana since 1923. Initially organized as the Indianapolis Dietetic Association in November 1921, the group was expended to become the Indiana Dietetic Association in March 1923.
